

2022 Saskatchewan Oil and Gas Show Conditions of Display Agreement:

1. Saskatchewan Oil & Gas Show indoor space rentals include carpet, table, two chairs, drapery, basic electrical outlet, daily carpet cleaning of booth and aisles, advertising and promotions, as well as 24-hour security.
2. Saskatchewan Oil & Gas Show outdoor space includes-24-hour security, advertising and promotions and basic power if requested in advance prior to the cut-off date (after that if power is required there will be a charge from the Show Provider). No fuel-based power sources are allowed on the grounds.
3. Display space may not be sublet by the exhibitor without written permission of the Weyburn Oil Show Board. Should you not be able to commit to your space you are required to relinquish it back to the Weyburn Oil Show Board. If you have an alternate company exhibiting in your space at the event, you will be removed as an exhibitor for future shows.
4. The contract may only be cancelled by the exhibitor provided written notice is received by Weyburn Oil Show Board at least three months prior to the first day of the Show, in which case all monies paid by the exhibitor less 50% of the booked booth registration fee will be refunded. If the exhibitor cancels after this date, the exhibitor will be liable for full payment of his rental space.
5. Weyburn Oil Show Board reserves the right to lease exhibit space only to exhibitors relevant to the Petroleum Industry and to expel any exhibitor who exhibits products or services unsuitable or undesirable or to relocate exhibits when such moves are necessary to maintain the character and/or good order of the show. The Exhibit must be fully contained in the space provided for the products/services to be exhibited and all revisions must be approved by Weyburn Oil Show Board.
6. The exhibitor is responsible for obtaining exhibition insurance covering personnel, exhibit material and equipment for the duration of move-in, show days, and move-out including public liability, property damage, fire and theft, etc. Weyburn Oil Show Board will not accept liability or responsibility for any loss damage or injury occurring to exhibitor personnel or property OR any loss, damage or injury caused to anyone or anything by the exhibitor. The exhibitor shall be liable for any damage inflicted by them to the exhibition facility.
7. The exhibitor agrees that no moving in or out of goods or dismantling of display will be permitted during the entire run of the Show and the display must remain intact until the closing hour of the last day of the Show. The exhibitor agrees to ensure a fully staffed booth during all show hours. The exhibitor also agrees to remove his exhibit, etc. from the show building by the final move-out time or in the event of failure to do so, the exhibitor agrees to pay for such additional costs as may be incurred. Any removal of any part of the display before the end of the show will result in being removed as an approved exhibitor for all future shows.
8. In the event that Saskatchewan Oil & Gas Show is cancelled for any reason, Weyburn Oil Show Board will not be liable to the exhibitor except to refund monies paid to that date for exhibit space.
9. Weyburn Oil Show Board reserves the right to cancel this contract for any breach by the exhibitor of any of its terms.
10. Crescent Point Place and Tom Zandee Sports Arena weight restriction: any one item not to exceed 10,000 lb per indoor booth space.
